MODERIAN

CANTON SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

CANTON, OHIO

Foreword

In this edition of your Moderian we present to you the many faces of school life—the trials, the joys, the triumphs. After Canton South, there is thrust before each of us a new world. For some this new world will be close; others will find themselves in worlds far removed, both in distance and in nature. There is no returning to seek refuge from the new world. As time fades, the only bond that will remain is that of memories.

It is our hope that the 1965 Moderian will provide the spark needed to rekindle those memories, and that those memories will be pleasant ones.

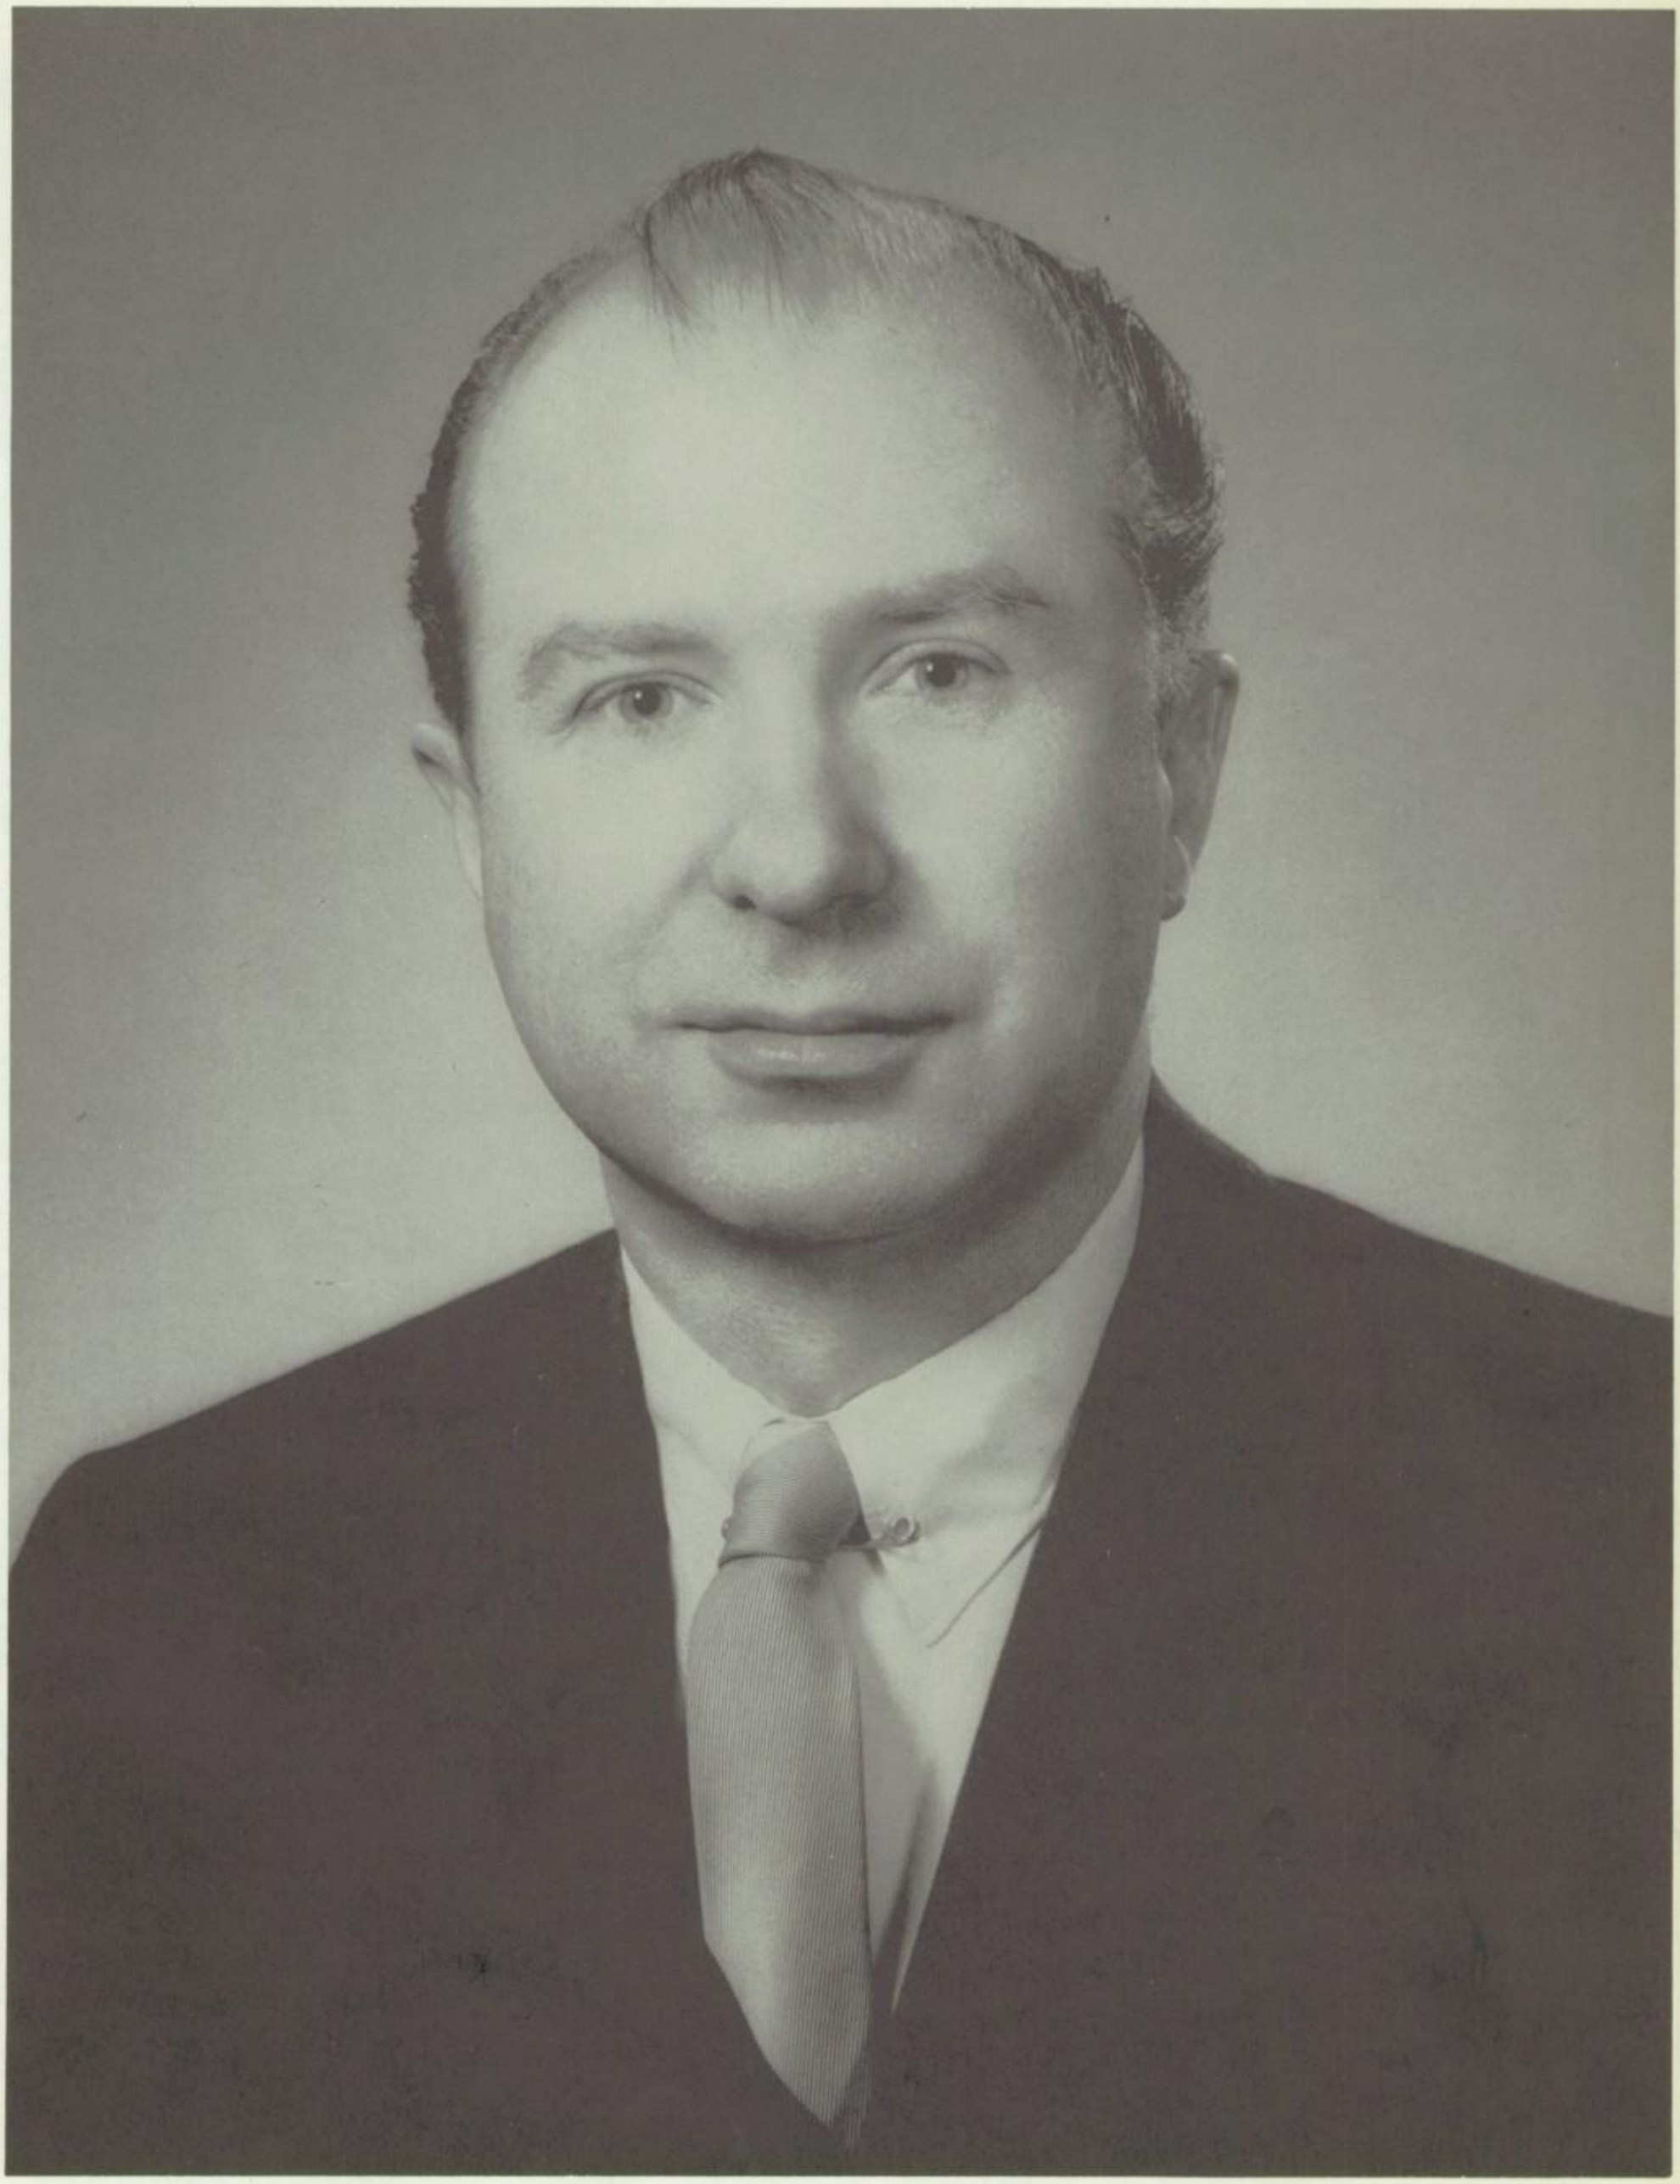
Dedication

The Annual Staff dedicates this 1965 Moderian to our respected friend and our team physician, Dr. Igor Nikishin. In his profession, an esteemed surgeon, in his family, a respected and beloved husband and father, Dr. Nikishin finds time also for directing his church choir and serving as a board member of the Canton Symphony Orchestra. He has willingly honored our numerous requests to share his human understanding, his travel experiences, and his great breadth of knowledge. Last year he presented an inspiring commencement address to the graduating class. His annual scholarship award to a football and a basketball player, and his regular and enthusiastic presence at all athletic events have endeared him to Canton South athletes during the past four years.

To this servant of church, school and community, a warm and friendly person whom we are proud to know and have in our midst, we humbly say, "Thank you."



Dr. Igor F. Nikishin

A name could not be more symbolical of the personality than when applied to Rose Marie Budd. She was a flower of happiness to those who knew her. She was a budding rose plucked at the time of unfolding maturity. We remember and pay tribute to this brave young girl who left our midst to join her Maker.

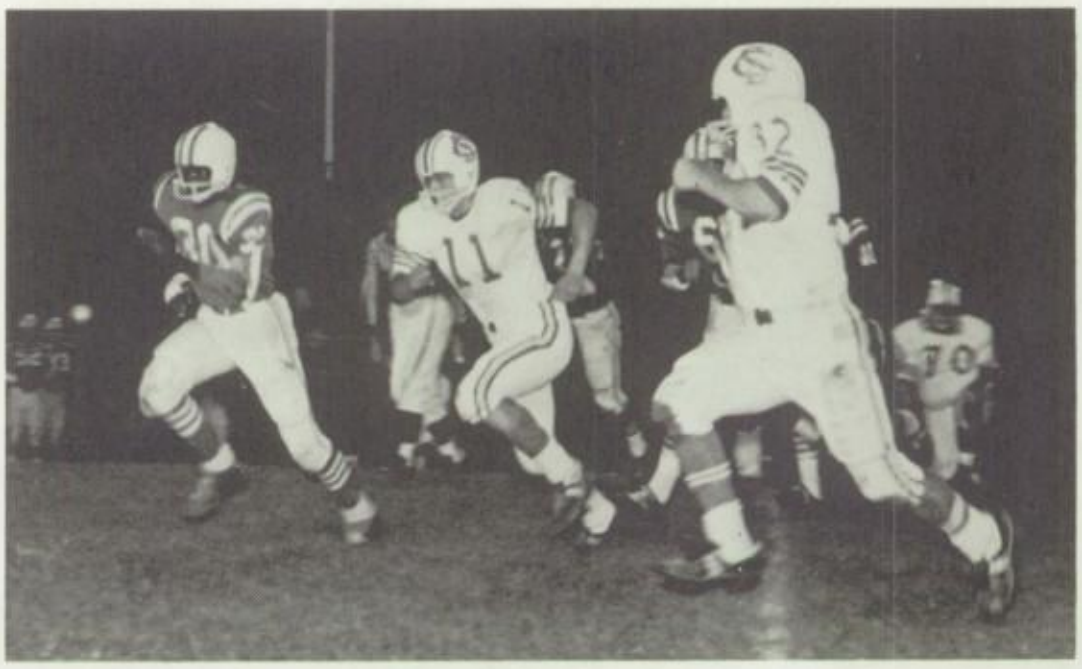
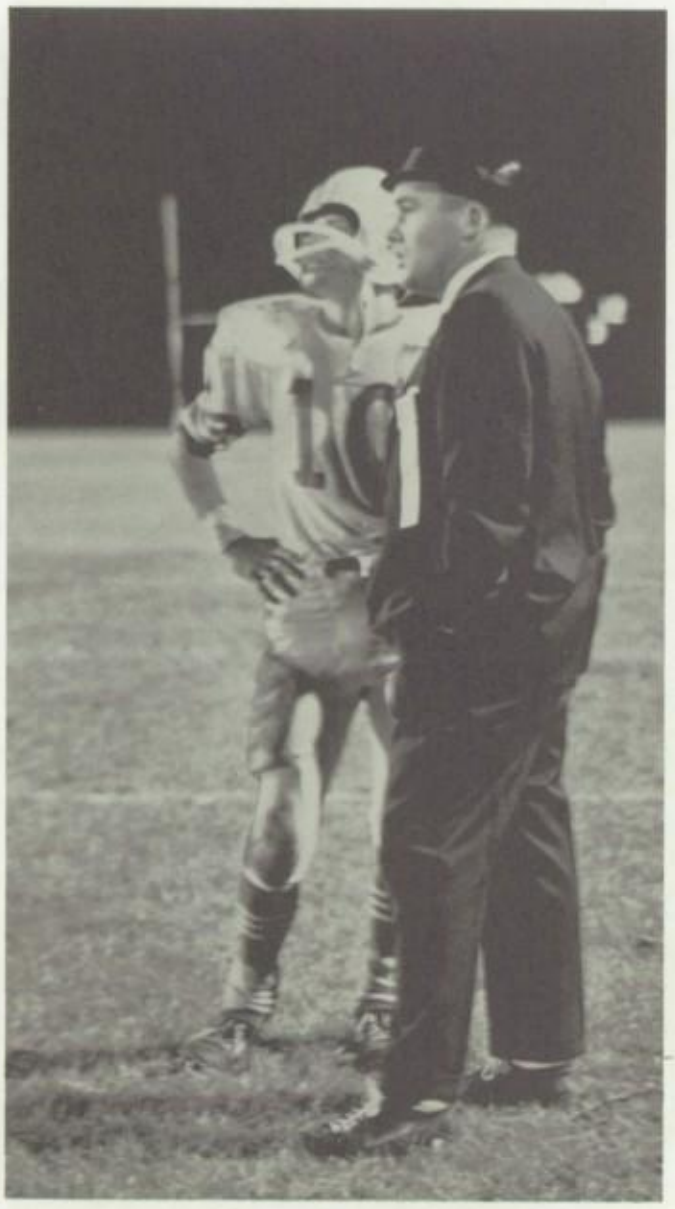
Although South's offense was not of "powerhouse" caliber, its strong defense came through to allow to the Wildcats a margin of 437 yards gained over the opposition.



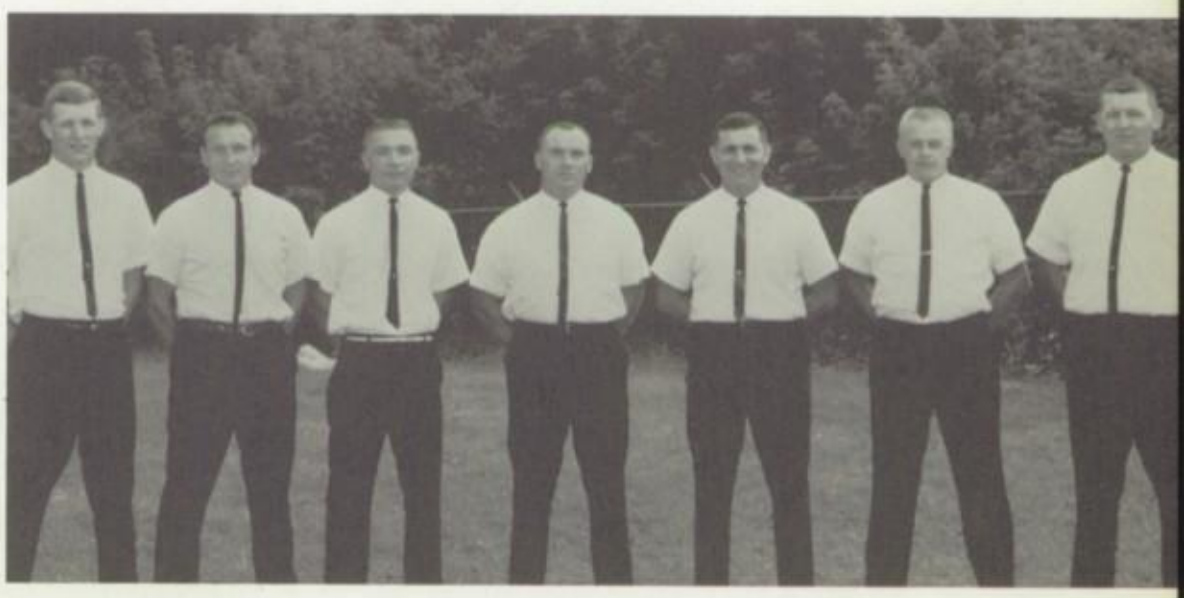
Fielding only three returning regulars, South soon succumbed to the lack of experience as it was outscored 166 to 129, in chalking up a 3-7 season record. Joe Viola increases his average to 5.3 yards per carry for a team first.

Varsity Football



With Quarterback Terry Miller, Head Coach Larry Kelly searches for a hole in the opposition's defense.

Unshakable, enthusiastic support and fired-up team spirit frequently were subdued by disheartening mental mistakes.



COACHING STAFF—Tim Miller, Jim Swierczek, Joe Briese, Larry Kelly, Vince Andreani, Bob Graham, Bob Gilmore.

In an up and down season, brilliant moments opened up new hopes, as did this yawning hole for a sizeable gain by Junior Back Ron Ream.

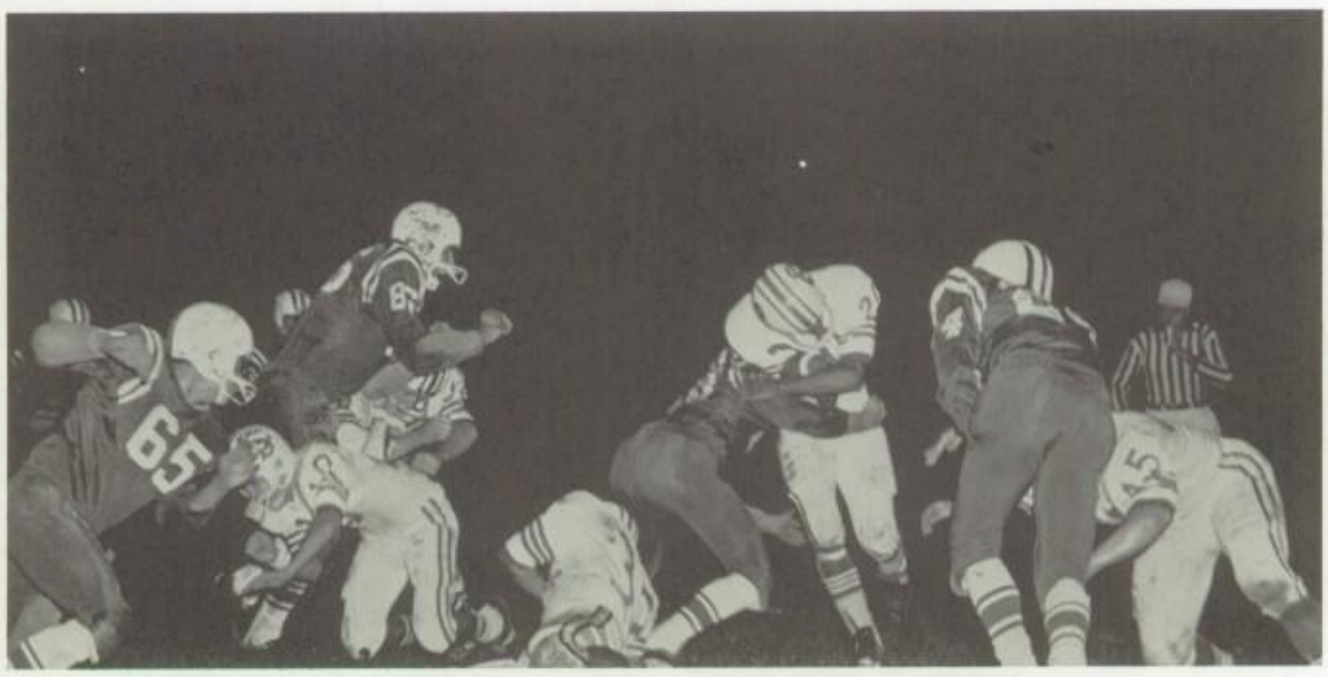
The scoring column fails to show much of the hard-fought football played by boys who didn't give up to numerous setbacks, as victory slipped from their grasp.

The Wildcats also outdistanced their opposition in first downs by both rushing and passing, but found the going rougher when getting into scoring action. Here Bernard Hunt tallies on an extra-point play.

Taking leave from his passing offensive, Roger Kimble throws a screening block, as Joe Viola picks up yardage in midfield action in South's new stadium.



South's Wildcats faced mostly top-flite teams both inside and outside of the newly formed Federal League. Central Catholic brought the season to a shuddering halt as they held South scoreless.

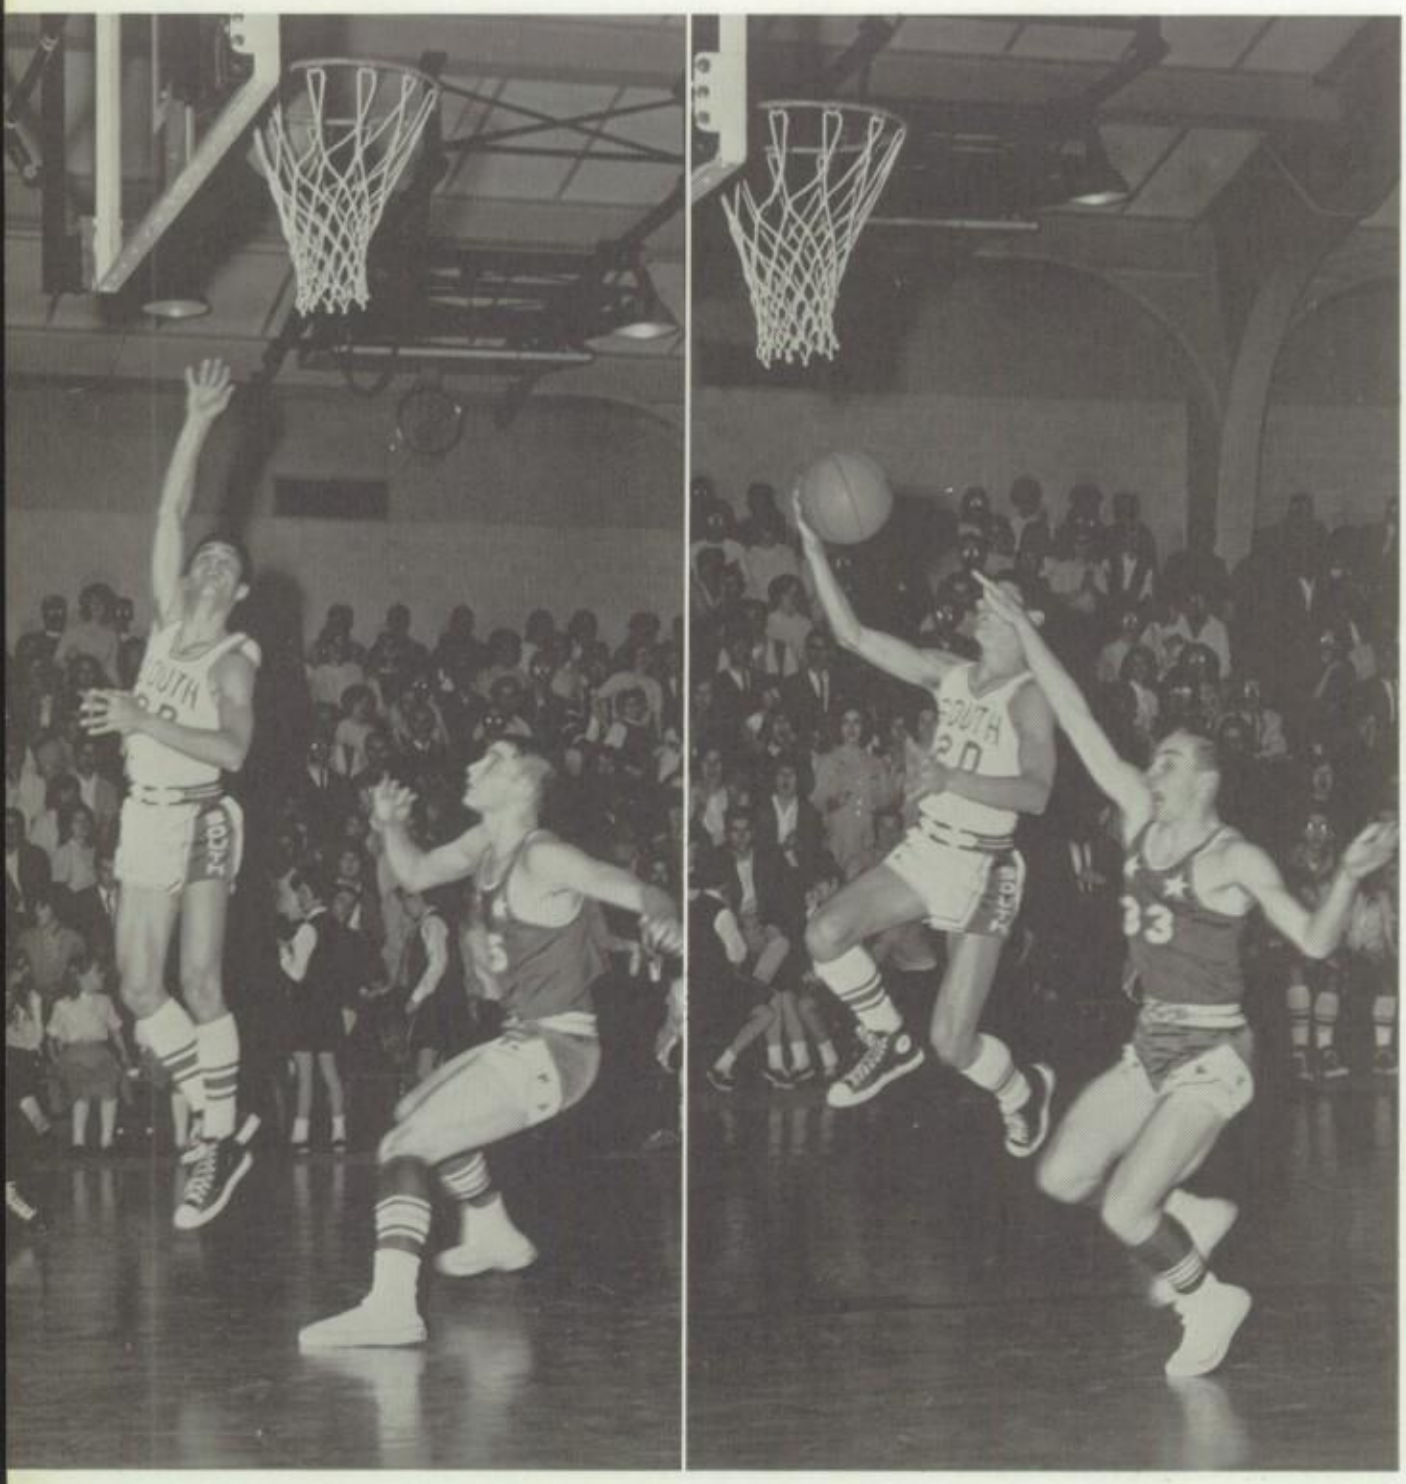
Varsity Basketball



With two of the fastest guards in the county, Frank Gonzales and Jerry Eibel, South employed the fast break in an offensive powerhouse that was ranked second in the league.

Four year letterman Ron Young set a career scoring record of 1047 points and a single-game record of 49 points against Jackson. Ron, an All-County repeater, was third leading scorer in the county, holding an average of 55% in scoring on his action shots.

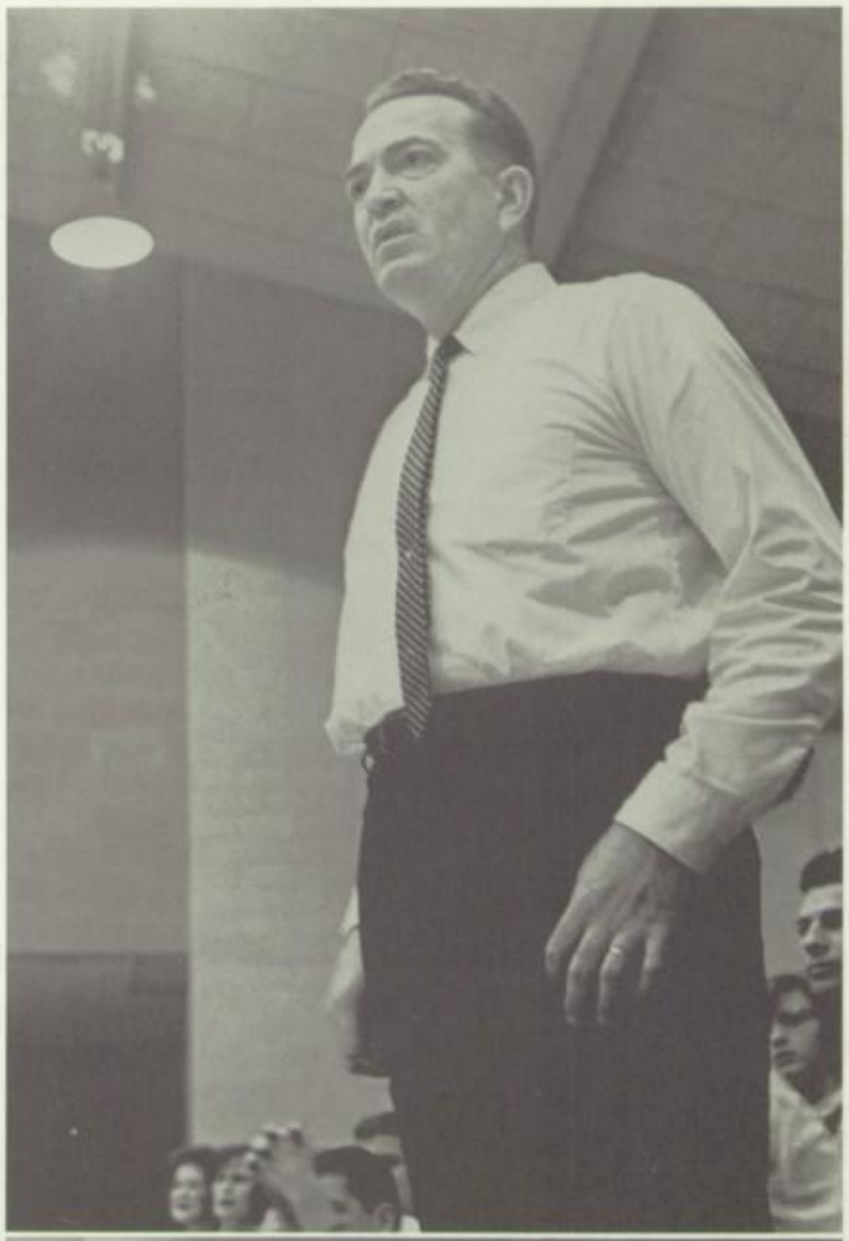
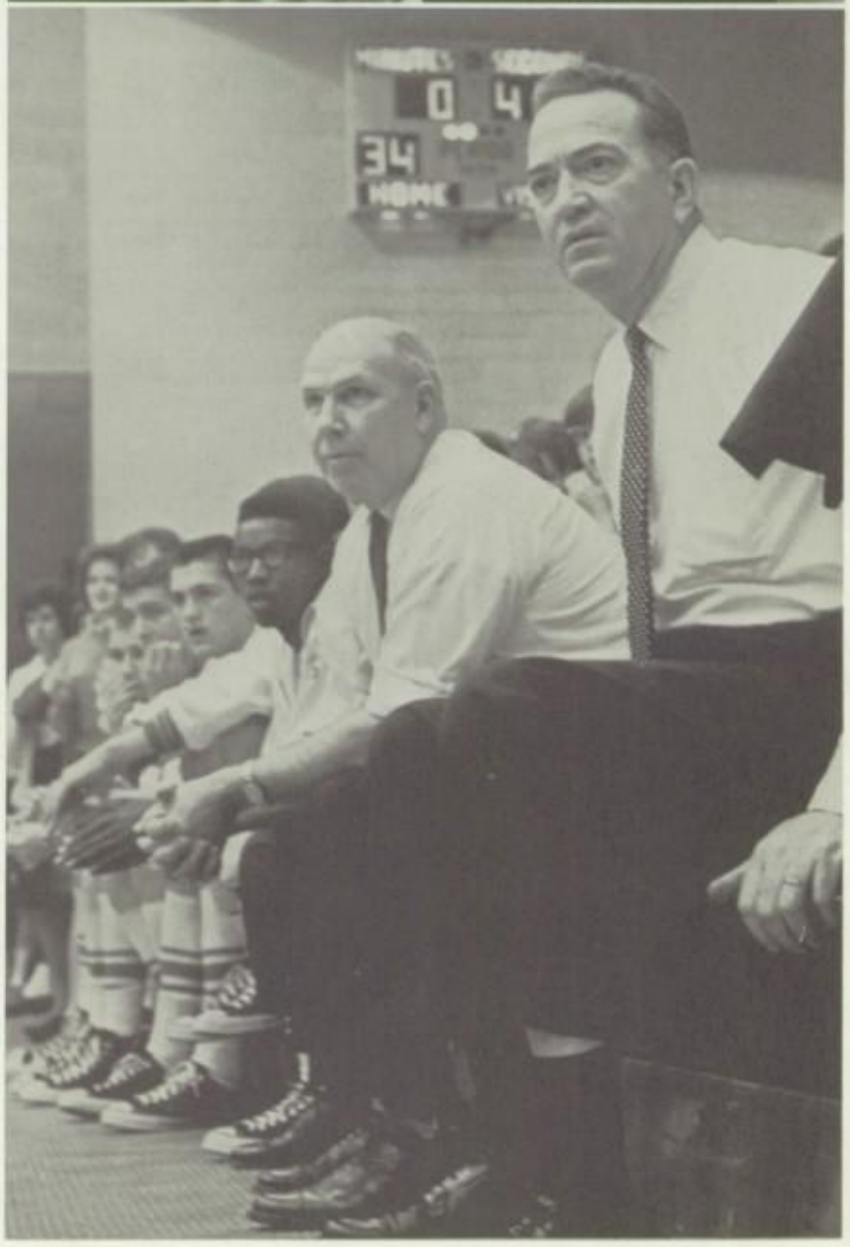
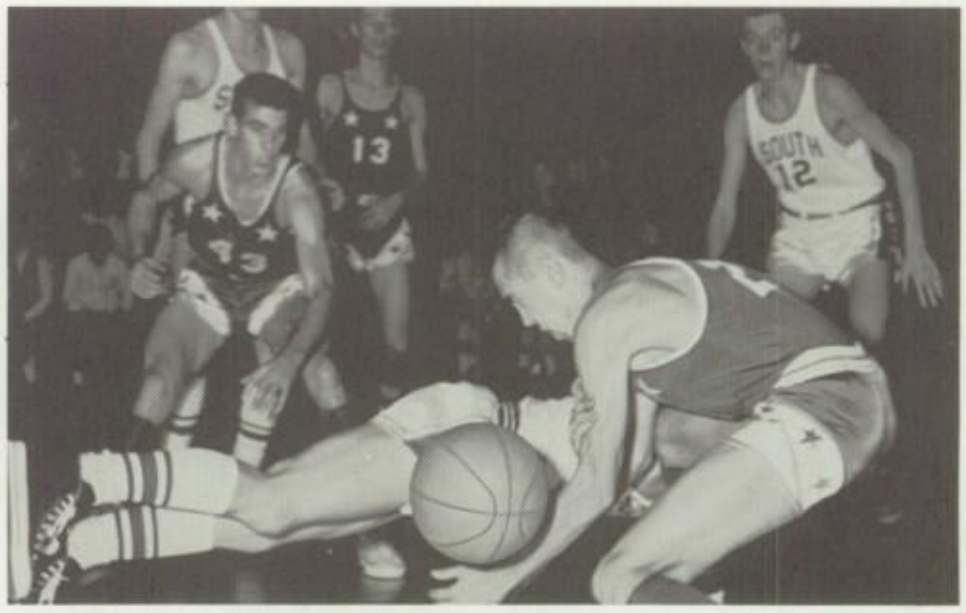
TOURNAMENT PLAY

South	63	Massillon	52
South	63	Perry	58
South	61	Canton McKinley	57

Coaching the Wildcats to a Federal League co-championship and a 12-6 record, with only one returning letterman, was no mean chore for veterans Charles (Red) Ash and Herbert Hackenberg.

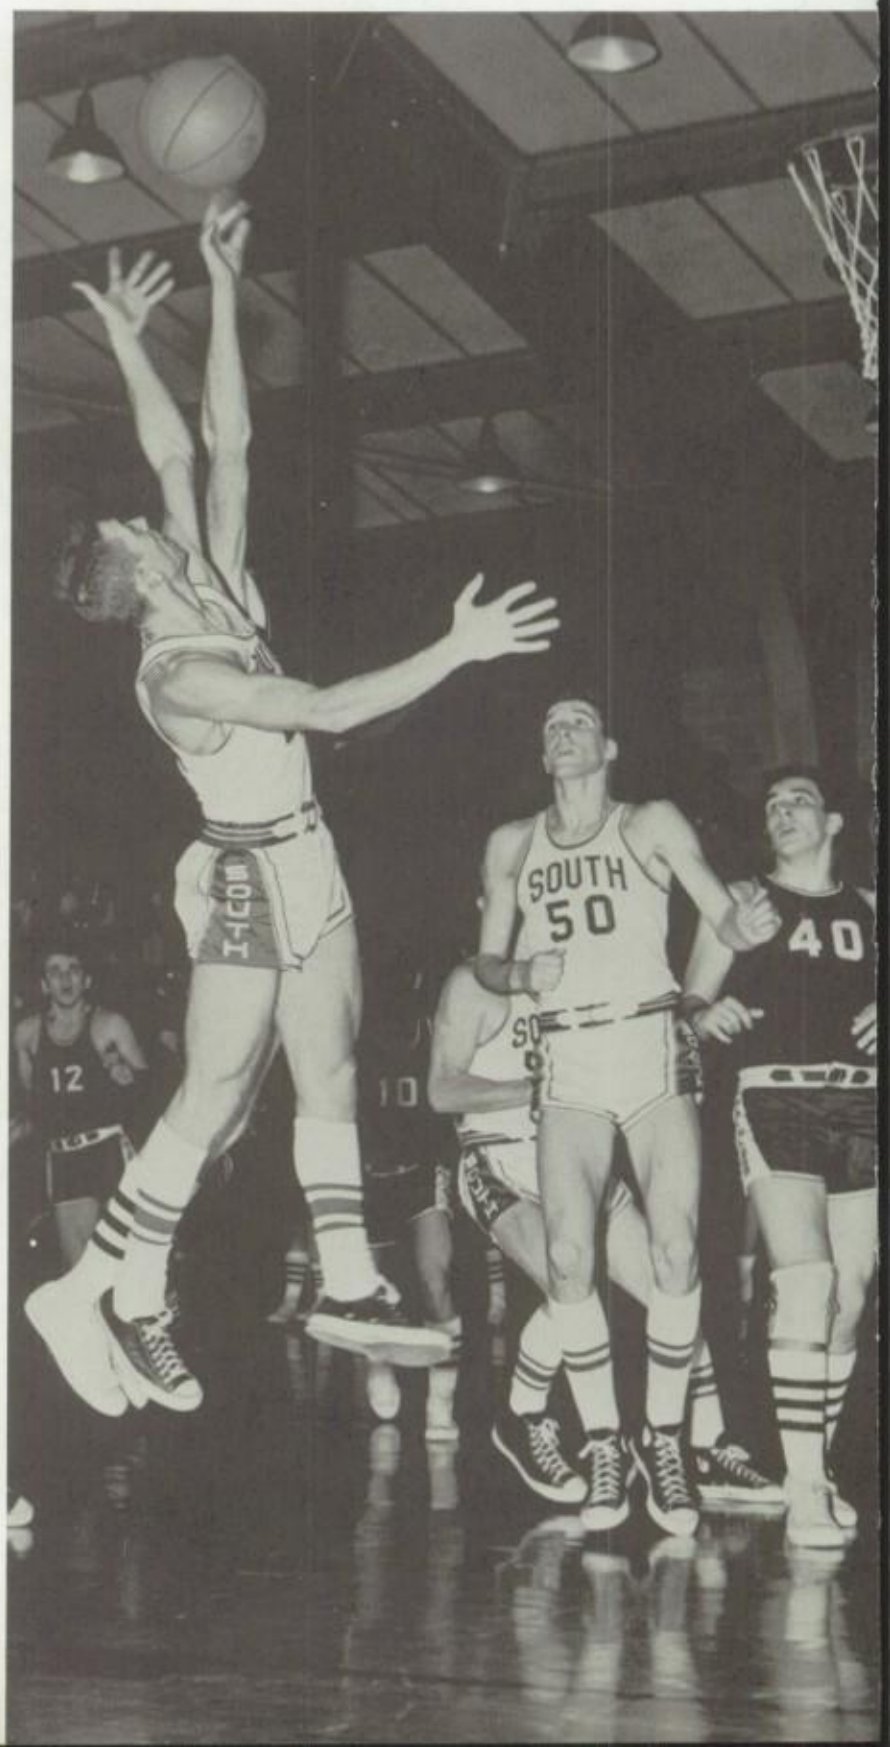






Though turnovers were kept to a minimum, there were times when the play was less than polished.

With the starting team averaging only six feet, hustle had to be substituted for great height.



Varsity Basketball Managers Mark Daniels, David Wilks, Jerry Cloer.

One of the South's small guards, Jerry Eibel, stole many key rebounds from taller opponents because of superior floor position.

Second-high team scorer Frank Gonzales rated honorable mention on the All-County team and the second team in the All-Federal League selections. Frank helped to pull a startling upset over the McKinley Bulldogs with three foul shots in the second of two overtimes in hard-fought sectional play.

Reserves

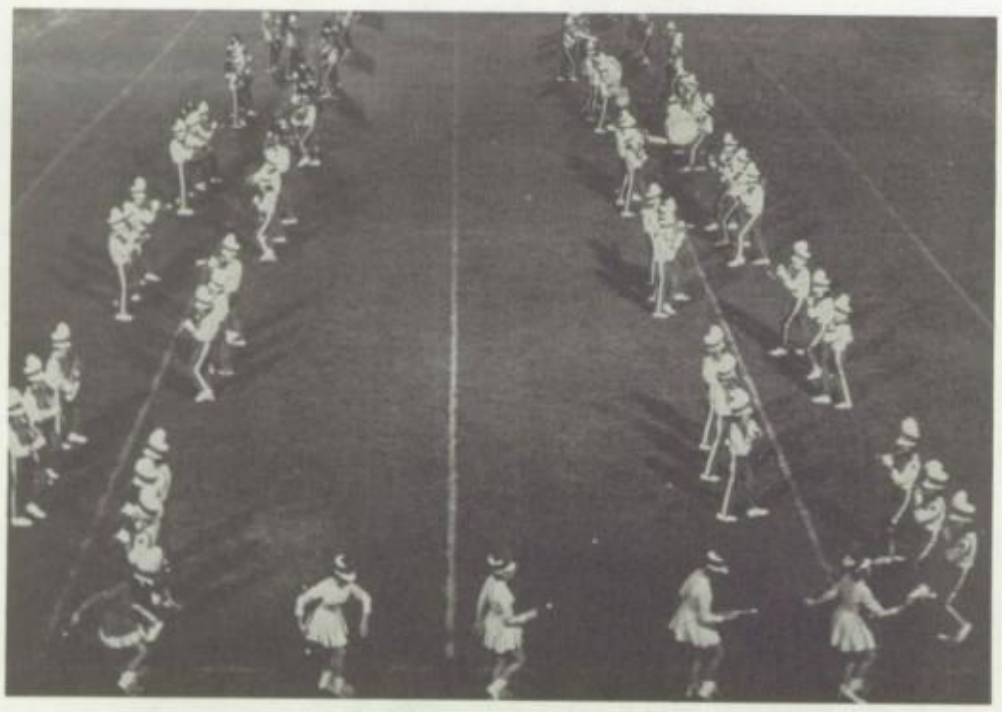
The Concert Band is under the direction of Mr. Heist.

Marching Band

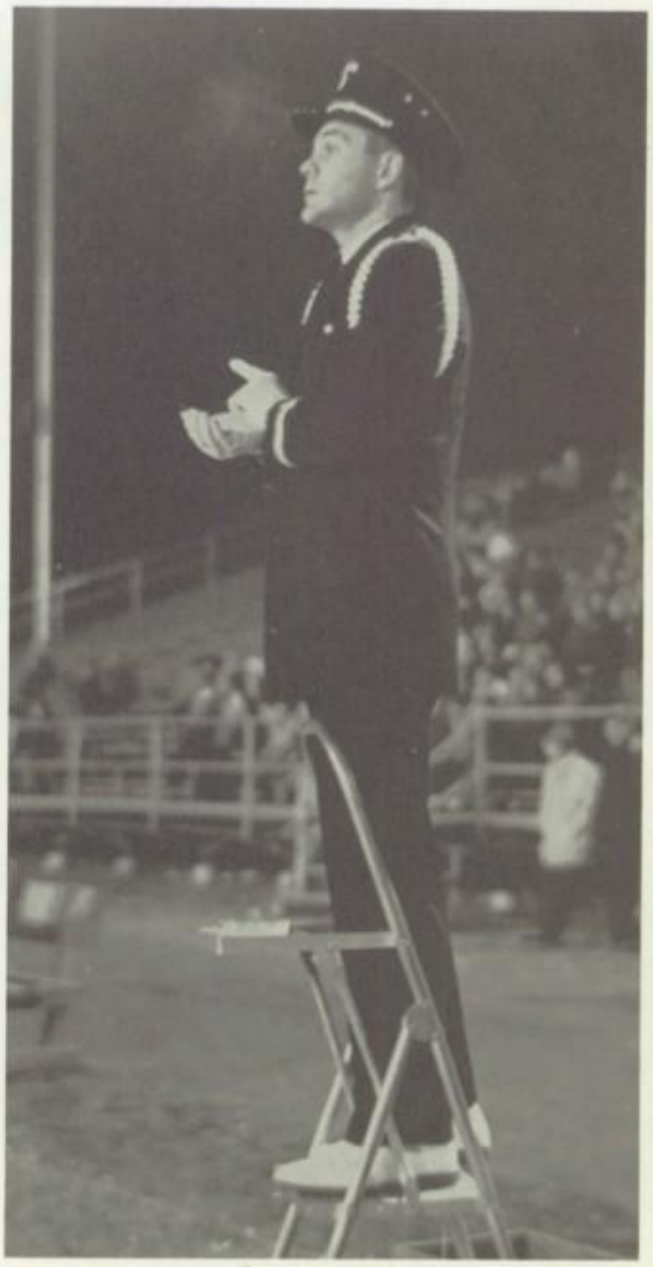
In the traditional "S" formation, the 105 piece Marching Band plays the Canton South Alma Mater.



In October the Marching Band included this intricate performance as guest performers at the Cleveland Browns' first night game at Lakeside Stadium in Cleveland.

Daily practices from early July to September increase to twice-daily stints during football marching season.

During halftime at the homecoming game Mr. Wenger directs the combined band and choir in "Just the Way You Look Tonight" to introduce the queen and her court.



Hollywood Showtime

"Hollywood Showtime," with closed-circuit television in the auditorium, was the very unusual presentation by the Stage Band in a three-night stand of the annual variety show. Drawing from local school talent, the show included numerous student musical, dance, and novelty numbers, dance lines with the cheerleaders and majorettes, and comedy features by custodians and teachers. The Stage Band very ably tied together the variety performances in some two hours of professional-quality entertainment to sell-out houses.

"Buttons and Bows," with the Dancing Majorettes

Gary Daughenbaugh played a medley of "Hi Neighbor" and "Stranger in Paradise."

Rosalie and El Wilgus teamed up for a duet on "Scarlet Cape." Ed also did a solo on the theme from "The Apartment."

"Moonlight Sonata" was Chosen by Donna Rodgers for her impressive ballet performance.

Bonnie Wenger and JoAnn Manse interpreted "Pink Panther."

Paul Pedicord and John Wenger, of the custodial staff, brought down the house with "No Two People."

"Canadian Capers" was Diane Bechtel's marimba solo.

Vocal solos featured Dawn Haager, Jerry Cloer, and Becky Beans.

Intricate and challenging solos won acclaim for Jim Timmons, Joyce Michaels, and Don Ferguson.

Variety Show

Carrying out the Showtime theme, Mr. John Pieper and student announcers Don Ehret and Tom Michaels shared the M.C. role in professional tradition. Mr. Vernon Paulus supervised the stage crew via telephone and performed duties of TV cameraman for four television sets on closed-circuit in the auditorium.

Taking off on the style of The Beatles, a local combo aroused the customary screams and sighs. Bob Baker, Marion Robinette, Gary Noland, Ronald Riley.

Carol Manly was assisted by Jerry Cloer and David Steenrod in "I Ain't Down Yet."

Tim Deremer demonstrated his magical powers on Rick Christen.

"Hello Dolly" was rendered as seldom before by this beauteous dance line.

Art Guild

Organized to maintain student interest and further artistic abilities and knowledge, the Art Guild consists of members of several levels of instruction in the curriculum. Functioning as a teaching aid, the guild also offers scholarships for summer art classes for underclassmen.

OFFICERS—Linda Schroeter, Secretary; Bernard Hoskinson, Treasurer; Kittie Brechbuhler, Vice-President; Donna Rodgers, President.

Dolly, played by Carolyn Hager, summarizes her past as Miss Butte of Montana to Norm, a gay bachelor (Tim Pfiffner) and Eddie's father (Donald Ehret).

Eddie's father comforts Elizabeth, portrayed by Carol Manly, a nurse and good friend of his son.

THESPIAN OFFICERS—Carol Manly, President; Carole Michaels, Vice-President; Roberta Rinehart, Secretary; Bonnie Wenger, Treasurer.

Thespians

The Thespian Club is composed of students who are active in dramatic arts and who have earned a minimum of ten points through participation in high school dramatic events. The organization's Fall Play, "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," was a great success. Also on their list of activities was a joint Christmas party with the Forensic League.

The Courtship of Eddie's Father

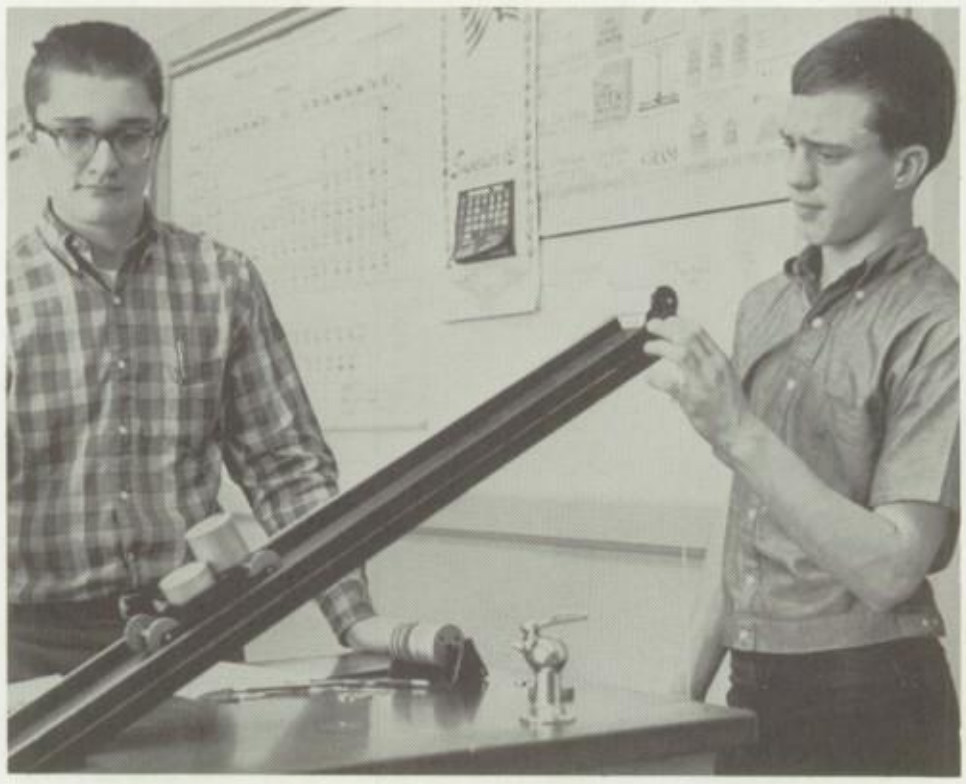
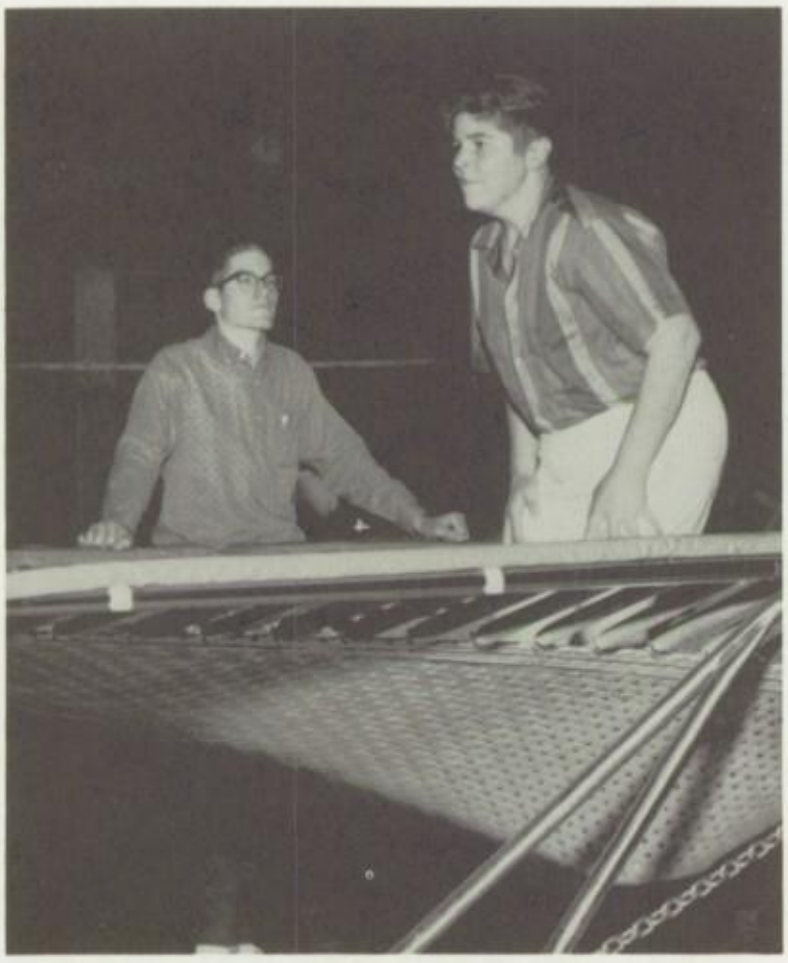
Young Eddie, a lovable imp, asks his widowed father, "Don't you think it's time you got married again? A growing boy needs a mother and a lonesome young man needs a pretty wife!" Eddie soon finds several desirable young ladies and some not so desirable—and Eddie's father has his hands full—delightfully so, as he tries to cope with school problems, his job, and the three lovely girls who seem to adore Eddie.

The successful production of "The Courtship" can be greatly attributed to Director Pieper and Student Director Carole Michaels.

Clifton Ball is transformed into the elderly superintendent of Eddie's apartment by Carole Michaels and her little bottle of white shoe polish.

Eddie's father listens skeptically as Julie Shaheen, playing Mrs. Bridges, Eddie's neighbor, suggests that he meet her sister, a very sensible girl, as Tom Antonio and Jane Postel look on.





Organizations

Library Club

Watching the Library Club celebrate their annual Christmas Party might mislead one to overlook the hours of diligent and painstaking work performed each school day and, for some, even during vacations. Student librarians aid the librarian and students, earning credit for their efforts, and participating actively in district and state organization meetings.

Stage Crew

Following the pattern of their parent organization, the Junior Red Cross concentrates on service rather than socializing. Some members are regularly scheduled to assist in the girls' clinic at the high school, and others participate as volunteer aides at Aultman Hospital.

Linda Manly, Vice-President; Barbara Oster, Secretary; Altheria Watkins, Treasurer; Helen Martin, President.

Canton South Journal

The Journal is published in six issues as an extracurricular project under supervision of the journalism instructor. A four-page format presents an attractive distribution of local photographs and maintains an excellent balance between feature articles and incidental or personal items. Four student page-editors are rotated to provide a variety of experiences and editorial color.

Marcia Babik, Page One Editor; Michael Malone; Vicki Carper, Page Two Editor; Pat Marchione, Page Three Editor.

Gloria Ellis, Lyda Gooch, Matthew Mitchell, Sandra Kemmerling.

Russell Ryder and Chris Nehlen, Art Editors.

National Forensic League

Row 1—Mae Evanko, Julie Shaheen, Carol Manly, Mary EllenKincaid, Dorothy Evanko. Row 2—Carole Michaels, Linda Woit, Alan Stallings, Scott Henry, George Michaels, Glen Munson, Linda Crawford.

The goal of the National Forensic League is to provide the students of Canton South with effective speech training. During the months of November to February, the members compete with state high school students in weekly tournaments, ever hopeful of winning the coveted trip to the National Finals.

OFFICERS: Secretary—Diane Casto; President—Donald Ehret; Recording Secretary—Tom Michaels; Vice-President—Diane Bechtel; Treasurer—Stanley Evanko.

Honor Society

Canton South has been a member of the National Honor Society since 1942. Its purpose is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in students of secondary schools throughout the nation. Members are chosen by the high school faculty and are given the gold membership pin in a special candlelight recognition service near the close of each school year. To be eligible, students must have maintained a 3 point average until they are selected in either the junior or senior year. The Honor Society sponsors the annual awards for scholastic achievement.

Scholarship Awards

Students who maintain a 3.75 or better average for one year receive a bronze pin, for two years, a silver pin, for three years, a gold pin, and for four years a gold bar.

This newly formed club, advised by Miss Synder and Mr. Taylor, works jointly with the Social Studies department in an effort to better inform its members in the field of Social Science. This years program included the sponsoring of a mock election, debates, and guest speakers.

Historian—Gary Braun; President —Nancy Davis; Treasurer—Tim Gerber; Secretary—Cinda Yarger; Vice-President—Tim Phillips.

Boys Leaders

The Boys' Leaders aid in the gym classes by checking attendance, giving demonstrations, and providing supervision.

Serving as liaison between the student body and administration, the Student Executive Board consists of presidents and vice-presidents of all classes and organizations. The Board selects from its membership the Steering Committee for The Canton Repository Teenager of the Month. An innovation this year was the exchange of senior representatives with Louisville High School for a day.

OFFICERS: Secretary—Carol Manly; Vice-President—Edward Wilgus; President—Tom Wenning; Treasurer—Sue Lehmiller.

Maxine Milliron, Treasurer; Mary Lou Brown, Vice-President; Sue Fisher, Secretary; Shirley Sanders, President; Trudy Flott, Historian.

Future Nurses and Health Careers

To learn from those who have trained and are serving in health and medical fields, the FNA seek many speakers for their regular meetings. Field trips to area hospitals provide additional information to better enable members wisely to plan for and select careers in these vocational areas.

Chair Crew

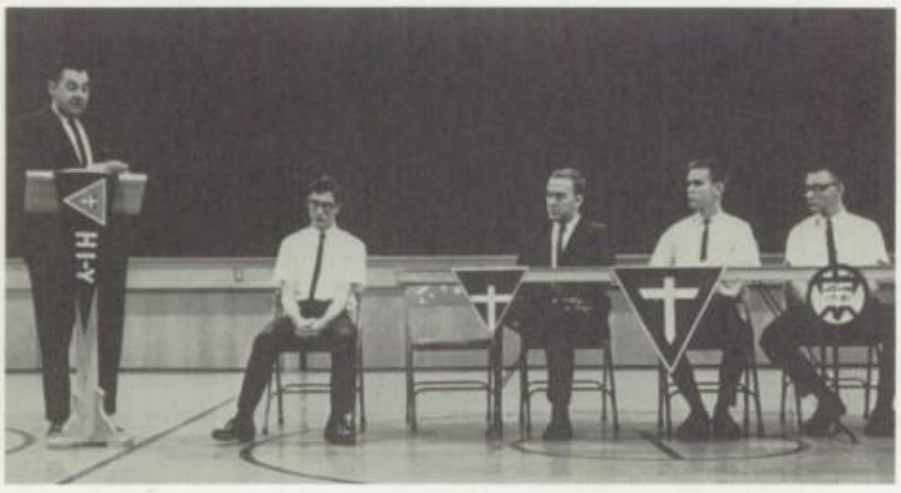
Junior-Senior Hi-Y

A high level of Christian service was demonstrated by the Hi-Y in conducting for the student body the traditional Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas assemblies. Members ushered at the home football games, urged adult voting by house calls during general election, and sent a representative to a Columbus mock legislature to further round out their program of good citizenship.

OFFICERS—Clark Froelich, Secretary; John Ley, Treasurer; John McWilliams, President; James Timmons, Chaplain; Michael Babics, Vice-President; Kenneth Groves, Vice-President.



At an impressive candlelight induction service Mr. Elden Taylor, President of the Board of Education stressed dedication to the purposes of the organization.

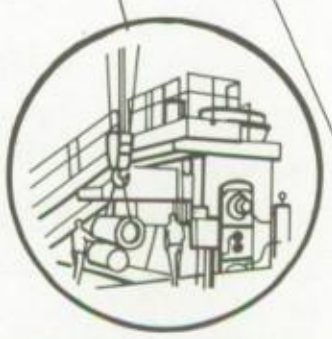
BLISS technologies for better, safer living

West Germany: A Bliss arresting gear "catches" a landing U. S. A. F. jet fighter on the runway after a brake failure.

Memphis: Antiquated fire alarms are replaced by a modern, more extensive Bliss-Gamewell coded alarm system.

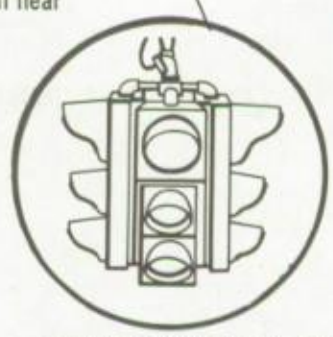


India: Vitally-needed aluminum strip comes whirling off a new Bliss cold mill near Calcutta.

Cape Kennedy: Bliss-built nozzles and engine parts help guide a Minuteman missile 5,000 miles down range

Brazil: Auto body sections are stamped out on huge Bliss mechanical presses at a plant in São Paulo.

Chicago: A Bliss Mackintosh-Hemphill roll is readied for service in a rolling mill at a giant steel plant.



Tampa: Revolutionary Bliss-Eagle traffic control system uses an electronic brain to synchronize traffic flow.

Even as these events are taking place, others are in the making. Bliss breaks ground for a new press-building plant for Israel . . . ships a complete can-making machinery line to a big food packer . . . announces a new plant in Canada to manufacture precision timers and other products . . . negotiates a contract for prototype production of parts for an advanced rocket system.
Everywhere in this growing, changing world, you'll find Bliss . . . growing and changing with it. Write for our 20-page booklet of Bliss activities.

CANTON SOUTH MODERIAN
Spring Supplement, 1965

Twirp Dance

Royalty dances to the music of the Dub-onairs on a simulated crown in the high school auditorium, where a "Camelot" theme was carried out with the trappings of knights of gold.

FHA Historian, Trudy Flott, crowns Charles Reed Twirp King for 1965. Nominated from the senior class and elected by the Future Homemakers, the king is announced during festivities at the March dance.

In a turn-about from traditional social etiquette, young ladies invite their escorts as they follow an annual custom in which "The Woman Is Requested to Pay."

SPRING SPORTS

Baseball

The Wildcats' over-all record was 11-8, including victories over non-league opponents McKinley and Louisville. Alertness paid off as they stole 41 bases to go along with their .220 team batting mark.

Second-year letterman Ted Cramer led the team in at-bats, runs, hits, and innings played while doing an outstanding job on defense behind the plate.

Receiving awards were statistician David Wilks, fourth year award; Ron Young and Glenn Elliot, third year letter; and Steve Svik and Ted Cramer, second year letter.

Versatile player Ron Young doubles as first baseman in South's victory over Timken. Following the scholastic season, Ron was signed with the Pittsburgh Pirates farm system for his pitching ability.

Row 1—Ted Cramer, Stephen Svik, Michael Watkins, Ronald Hull, Kenneth Groves, Larry Malavite, William Wood, Gary Dazey, Tom Wenning, Manager Jerry Elliott. Row 2—Assistant Coach Robert DeLap, Head Coach Tim Miller, Larry Watkins, Charles Morris, Ronald Young, Tom Becker, Roger Kimble, Glenn Elliott, Ronald Ream, Statistician David Wilks.

Golf

The South golf team of 1965, composed of three Juniors, five Sophomores, and one Freshman, compiled a mediocre 2-27 record. They gained needed experience and closed the season with two consecutive victories.

Track

Despite the fact that the 1965 South track team was primarily composed of underclassmen, they finished with a respectable 3-5 record.

Standout Randy Rupp, Class of '66, broke school records in the 180 low hurdles and the broad jump this season.

Sandy Toma, Sophomore pole vaulter, showed constant improvement throughout this season, and considerable promise for future years.

1965
Junior-Senior Prom

Doorman Curtis McClelland, provided by the Junior Class, shows truly formal hospitality as he opens the door to "Southern Fantasy" for Sydnie Davis and Ed Bonam.

1964 Prom King and Queen, James Barton and Charlotte Tomlin await the crowning of the new royalty selected by vote of the Junior Class.

The balcony became a unique attraction, if not a secluded escape from the crowd.

Music by the Star Lites set the mood for an evening of enchantment.

The major event of the evening was the crowning of the 1965 Prom King and Queen, Tom Lagodich and Kathy Nichols.

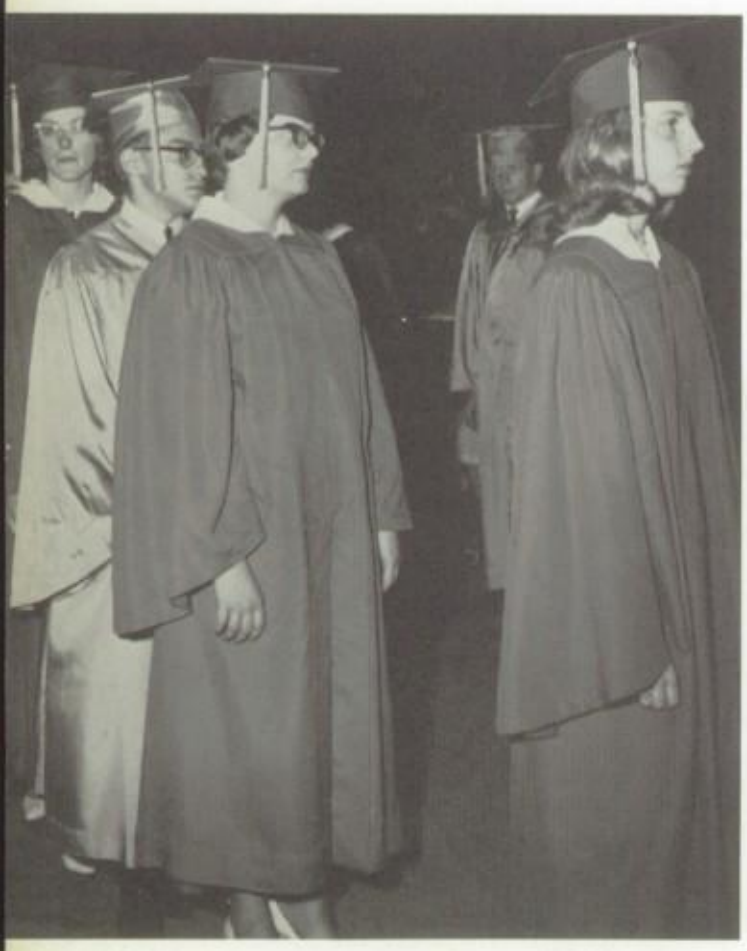
The Colonial Room at Southgate provided a new setting for the 1965 Prom. Dancing and relaxation combined with a southern colonial atmosphere to make an enjoyable evening for seniors, juniors, and their guests.

Commencement

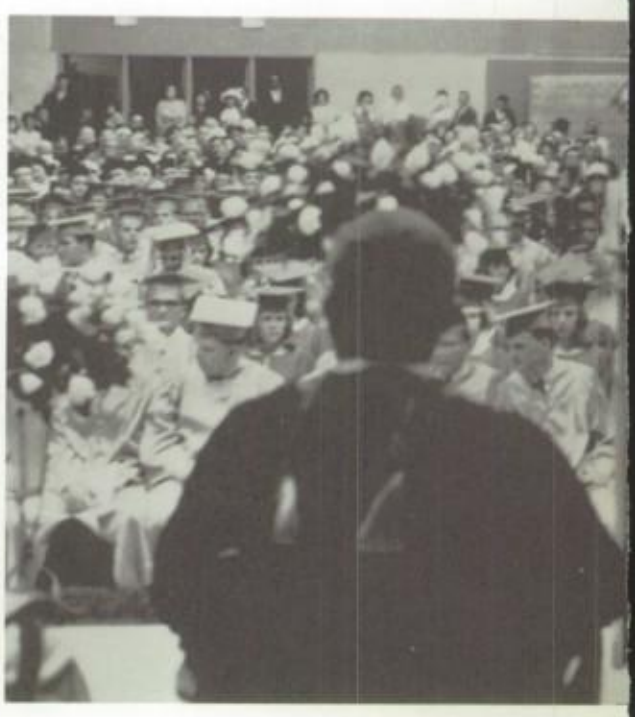
Canton South's largest graduating class in history, 253 students, attended commencement exercises in the school's auditorium. Dr. E. L. Cattell, president of Malone College delivered the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 30.

The June first Commencement address was given by Mr. J. L. Hanna, general traffic manager for the Ohio Bell Company.

Valedictorian George Michaels addressed fellow classmates.

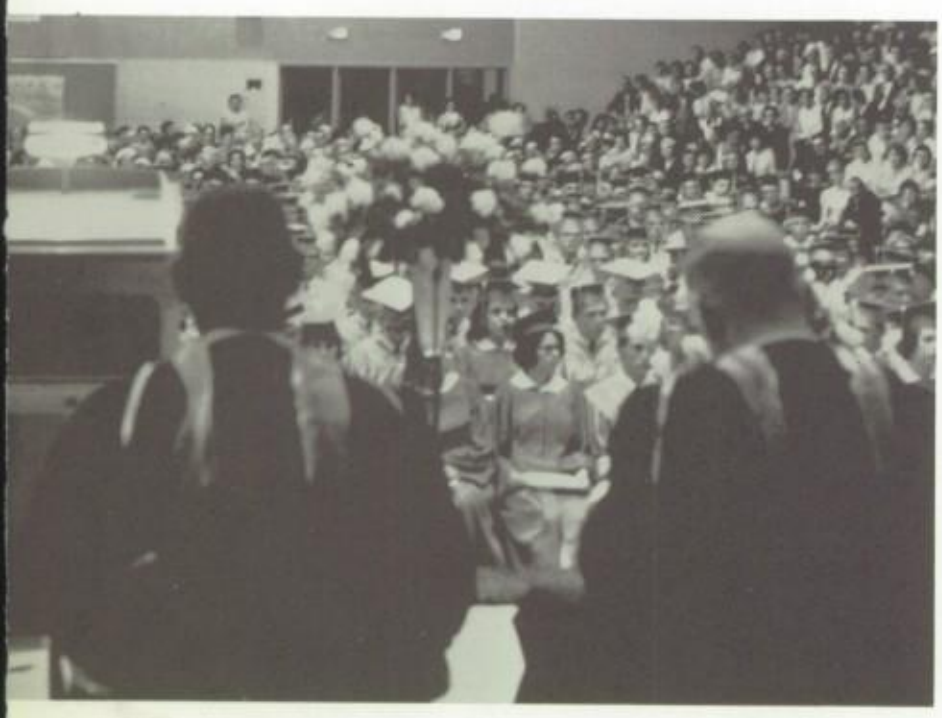


Graduates file into the auditorium in a seemingly endless procession to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the Canton South High School band.



President of the Canton Local Board of Education, Mr. Eldon Taylor, awarded diplomas.

Thom Robertson shared co-salutatorian honors with Susan Lehmiller.



Parents and friends gathered in the auditorium after inclement weather forced cancellation of the first outdoor commencement ceremonies.

With unrevealed emotions Laura Capper awaited "her turn."

National Honor Society

Selected for membership and installed at an impressive candle-light recognition service were nine seniors and thirty juniors.

JUNIORS—Row 1—Darlene Bracken, Linda Gigliotti, Barbara Oster, Bonnie Beans, Karen Whitacre, Gloria Frankovich, Karen Jolly, Alice Shankle, Rosalie Wilgus. Row 2—Wilma Eby, Denise Mayes, Connie Leslie, Judy Volk, Virginia Weaver, Carolyn Hager, Barbara Messenger, Barbara Fowler, Linda Lake, Ruth Malavite, Charlene Simmers. Row 3—Barbara Fausnight, Don Ehret, George Momirov, Bill Griffing, George Gilbert, Colin Wiley, Larry Hackenberg, Ron Ream, Earlene Warnick. Absent, Dave Carpenter.

Spring Play

Don Ehret, as Carl, and Carol Manly, as Magda, order Lester Changet (Nicholas) out after discovering he has murdered their friend Sevareid, played by Tom Busnick.

The Thespian Club's spring play, "In 25 Words or Death," is based on the adventures of a group of contest winners trying to enjoy a Thanksgiving weekend at Pelican Point Lodge. To their surprise the island is inhabited by two sinister smugglers.

THE CAST—Tom Busnick, Denise Mayes, Lester Changet, Sharon Moga, Kathy Daniels, James Timmons, Carolyn Hager, Don Ehret, Jack Fortune, Carol Manly, and Carole Michaels.
